

Domino's selects winners for annual excellence awards

3304

Domino's Pizza Stores have announced the winners of the fourth annual People's Choice Domino's Pizza Excellence Awards.

Nominations were open to elementary, middle and high school teachers, coaches, bus drivers, office staff and principals in the DeSoto County school system.

The winners were chosen based on nominations.

The winners are Brenda Wilkinson, principal at DeSoto Central Elementary; Mark McBride, coach at Olive Branch Middle School; Amy Wilson, teacher at Olive Branch Elementary;

Betty Norris, office employee at Chickasaw Elementary; Cody Herman, student at Horn

Lake High School;

Amber Kimble, student at Southaven Middle; Evan Howlett, student at Horn Lake Middle; Amy Southern, student at Greenbrook Elementary; and Grey Hollowell, student at Center Hill Elementary.

Nominations were accepted until April 1.

Riki Jackson of DeSoto County School and Domino's franchise owners Jason Shifflett, Diane Davis Barrentine and Rick Davis coordinated the awards.

Award winners will receive special recognition at an awards ceremony at 6 p.m. May 24 at the Domino's Pizza location in Olive Branch.

The winners will receive a certificate and free pizza for one year.

"We are convinced that the Domino's Pizza Excellence Awards are a great way to give back to DeSoto County," Domino's Pizza franchise owner Jason Shifflett said.

"We want to show the school system and those nominated how much we appreciate their hard work and dedication they put forth every day.

"All of our students and faculty are winners for their achievements at school and in the community."

- From staff reports